IPSA'S WESTERN CAPE REGION BRINGS YOU THE MUCH-ANTICIPATED
2017 ANNUAL SEMINAR, THIS YEAR ENTITLED:

MYTH BUSTERS

YOU'VE HEARD THEM ALL:

'Packaging is the biggest contributor
to the solid waste stream',

'Save our trees and
avoid climate change',

'plastic packaging causes cancer'

... and all the rest.

The myths about packaging abound and it's our responsibility, as industry professionals, to debunk fake news when it comes our way. Don't delay. Book your seat, bring a colleague, and join us to hear about the myths and learn the real facts from our industry's experts.

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

- 12:00 Registration
- 12:30 Finger lunch
- 13:30 MYTH BUSTER #1 Mark Liptrot | Sustainability Manager | Constantia Afripack
Mark explains why it's a myth that laminated flexible packaging cannot be recycled and is bad for the environment.
- 14:00 MYTH BUSTER #2 Chandru Wadhvani | Joint Managing Director | Extrupet
Chandru debunks the myth that plastic beverage bottles create waste and aren't recyclable in South Africa.
- 14:30 Tea/coffee break
- 15:00 MYTH BUSTER #3 Annabé Pretorius | Founder | Plastix 911
Annabé disputes the myth that plastic packaging must be biodegradable to save the environment.
- 15:30 MYTH BUSTER #4 Chris Burchmore | Africa Regional Director | Forest Stewardship Council
Chris upends the myth that using paper packaging destroys forests.
- 16:00 Discussion and questions
- 16:30 Close and cash bar
